

EDUCITY EXPERIENCE BRINGS YOU THE 1ST VIRTUAL CHINESE NEW YEAR CELEBRATION

24 February 2021 – As part of the EduCity Experience yearly event, the Chinese New Year Celebration has always been something EduCity students looked forward to each year. This year a virtual celebration was organised to include a series of exciting and educational sessions.

More than eighty (80) EduCity students participated. The virtual event was live-streamed on EduCity's Facebook and YouTube and garnered more than 10,000 viewers during the 2-hour event.

Hosted by Jack Oakley and Amanda Permana, both from University of Reading Malaysia, the viewers enjoyed a series of musical performances by ten (10) students from EduCity's education partners. Jasper Teo, Johnson Khor, Kai Wen, Kaviratna Narayansamy and Aaron Tay from the University of Southampton Malaysia, Sean, Kate and Kostya from the Newcastle University of Medicine Malaysia and Hendrix from Raffles University.

Skyler Lian from the University of Southampton Malaysia also made an exciting presentation on the Chinese New Year celebration history and its many customs.

The event also features the Kahoot Quiz Session, hosted by EduCity's President of Student Senate (2021/2022), Aktshara Bala Superminam, where RM1,000 was given out to twenty (20) winners.

The event was made special with a group singing performance by representatives of EduCity's education partners to a tune of 'When You Believe', a song to reflect the positive message of being united in the face of the many challenges we face daily.
